Item 3.02 Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities.

Due to mainly certain recent conversions of Series C redeemable Convertible Preferred Stock (the “Series C Preferred Stock”) of Camber Energy, Inc. (the “Company”, “Camber”, “we” and “us”), of which 1,183 shares are outstanding as of the date of the Report, the terms of which are disclosed in the Company’s Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on April 7, 2016 and October 5, 2017, and certain recent issuances pursuant to the terms of the Company’s April 2016 warrant, which was exercised in full on October 7, 2016, as described in the Form 8-K filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on October 12, 2016, the Company currently has 12,941,900 shares of common stock issued and outstanding.

Specifically, since February 14, 2018 (the date the Company’s Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended December 31, 2017, was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission), a total of 159 shares of Series C Preferred Stock have been converted into common stock by the holder thereof (the “Investor”), which together with the shares of common stock issued upon the exercise of the warrant held by the Investor, and shares of common stock issued upon conversion of a debenture sold to the Investor in April 2016, total approximately 9,148,062 shares of common stock which have been issued to the Investor since February 14, 2018.

The sale and issuance of the securities described herein have been determined to be exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) in reliance on Sections 3(a)(9) and 4(a)(2) of the Securities Act, Rule 506 of Regulation D promulgated thereunder and Regulation S promulgated thereunder, as transactions by an issuer not involving a public offering. The Investor has represented that it is an accredited investor, as that term is defined in Regulation D. The Investor also has represented that it is acquiring the securities for investment purposes only and not with a view to or for sale in connection with any distribution thereof.

Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Effective on June 21, 2018, Richard N. Azar II, resigned as a member of the Board of Directors of the Company. The resignation was not due to a disagreement with the Company or in connection with any matter relating to the Company’s operations, policies or practices.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

On June 25, 2018, the Company entered into a non-binding letter of intent with an entity affiliated with Mr. Azar and Donnie B. Seay, our current director (the “LOI”). The LOI contemplates the Company and the entity entering into, among other agreements, an asset purchase agreement whereby the Company will transfer substantially all of its assets to the entity, reserving its assets in Glasscock County and Hutchinson Counties, Texas and will also retain a 12.5 % production payment and a 3% overriding royalty interest in its existing Okfuskee County, Oklahoma asset, in consideration for the entity assuming all of the Company’s senior bank debt owed to International Bank of Commerce (“IBC”). The LOI is subject to various conditions, as are the transactions contemplated therein, including, but not limited to, approval of IBC and approval of the Company’s shareholders for the contemplated transactions.

On June 26, 2018, the Company filed a press release disclosing the entry into the LOI. A copy of the press release is included as Exhibit 99.1.

Item 9.01 Financial Statements and Exhibits.

Important Information

In connection with the proposed asset disposition between Camber and the buyer, Camber currently intends to file a proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”). This communication is not a substitute for any proxy statement or other document Camber may file with the SEC in connection with the proposed transaction. Prospective investors are urged to read the proxy statement, when filed as it will contain important information. Any definitive proxy statement(s) (if and when available) will be mailed to stockholders of Camber. Prospective investors may obtain free copies of the proxy statement, when filed, as well as other filings containing information about Camber, without charge, at the SEC’s website (www.sec.gov). Copies of Camber’s SEC filings may also be obtained from Camber without charge at Camber’s website (<https://www.camber.energy>) or by directing a request to Camber at (713) 528-1881. This document does not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy any securities or a solicitation of any vote or approval nor shall there be any sale of securities in any jurisdiction in which such offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful prior to registration or qualification under the securities laws of any such jurisdiction.

INVESTORS SHOULD READ THE PROXY STATEMENT AND OTHER DOCUMENTS TO BE FILED WITH THE SEC CAREFULLY BEFORE MAKING A DECISION CONCERNING THE TRANSACTION.

Participants in Solicitation

Camber and its directors and executive officers and other members of management and employees are potential participants in the solicitation of proxies in respect of the proposed transaction. Information regarding Camber’s directors and executive officers is available in Camber’s definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the SEC on November 29, 2017. Additional information regarding the interests of such potential participants will be included in the proxy statement to be filed with the SEC by Camber in connection with the proposed transaction and in other relevant documents filed by Camber with the SEC. These documents can be obtained free of charge from the sources indicated above. Additional information regarding the participants in the proxy solicitations and a description of their direct and indirect interests, by security holdings or otherwise, will be contained in the proxy statement and other relevant materials to be filed with the SEC when they become available.

Forward-Looking Statements

Certain statements in this communication regarding the proposed disposition between Camber and the buyer are “forward-looking” statements. The words “anticipate,” “believe,” “ensure,” “expect,” “if,” “intend,” “estimate,” “probable,” “project,” “forecasts,” “predict,” “outlook,” “aim,” “will,” “could,” “should,” “would,” “potential,” “may,” “might,” “anticipate,” “likely” “plan,” “positioned,” “strategy,” and similar expressions, and the negative thereof, are intended to identify forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements, which are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions about Camber, may include projections of Camber’s future financial performance, Camber’s anticipated growth strategies and anticipated trends in Camber’s businesses. These statements are only predictions based on current expectations and projections about future events. There are important factors that could cause actual results, level of activity, performance or achievements to differ materially from the results, level of activity, performance or achievements expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, including the risk factors set forth in Camber’s most recent reports on Form 10-K, Form 10-Q and other documents on file with the SEC and the factors given below:

- ? failure to mutually agree on definitive terms regarding the transaction and/or failure to enter into a definitive agreement in connection with the proposed transaction;
- ? termination of the proposed transaction by either party upon the results of unfavorable due diligence;
- ? failure to obtain the approval of the shareholders of Camber in connection with the proposed transaction;
- ? the failure to consummate or delay in consummating the proposed transaction for other reasons;
- ? the timing to consummate the proposed transaction;
- ? the risk that a condition to closing of the proposed transaction may not be satisfied;
- ? the risk that a regulatory approval that may be required for the proposed transaction is delayed, is not obtained, or is obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated;
- ? Camber’s ability to achieve value through the proposed transaction; and
- ? the diversion of management time on transaction-related issues.

Camber’s forward-looking statements are based on assumptions that Camber believes to be reasonable but that may not prove to be accurate. Camber cannot guarantee future results, level of activity, performance or achievements. Moreover, Camber does not assume responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of any of these forward-looking statements. Camber assumes no obligation to update or revise any forward-looking statements as a result of new information, future events or otherwise, except as may be required by law. Readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements that speak only as of the date hereof.

SIGNATURE

Pursuant to the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the registrant has duly caused this report to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned hereunto duly authorized.

Camber Energy Announces Execution of Letter of Intent Relating to Asset Disposition and Assignment of Debt

SAN ANTONIO, TX / ACCESSWIRE / June 26, 2018 / Camber Energy, Inc. (NYSE American: CEI) (the “Company” or “Camber”), based in San Antonio, Texas, a growth-oriented, independent oil and gas company engaged in the development of crude oil, natural gas and natural gas liquids, announced the execution of a non-binding letter of intent on June 25, 2018, in connection with the disposition of a substantial portion of its assets in exchange for the buyer’s assumption of all of Camber’s debt with its bank, International Bank of Commerce (“IBC”). The proposed buyer pursuant to the letter of intent is a party affiliated with Richard N. Azar II, Camber’s former Chief Executive Officer and former director who resigned on June 21, 2018, and Donnie B. Seay, our current director.

The closing of the transaction is subject to customary closing conditions including negotiation of definitive closing documents, approval of IBC and shareholder approval, among others.

In the event the parties enter into definitive documents, the transaction is approved by the Company’s shareholders and closes, the Company will retain its assets in Glasscock County and Hutchinson Counties, Texas and will also retain a 12.5% production payment and a 3% overriding royalty interest in its existing Okfuskee County, Oklahoma asset. Camber is also evaluating additional acquisition opportunities which will further enhance the Company’s growth plans, funding permitting.

Additionally, if the Closing occurs, it will extinguish all of the Company’s existing bank debt, which should significantly enhance the Company’s balance sheet.

The Interim CEO of Camber, Louis G. Schott, noted that “This transaction will position the Company to improve its balance sheet by substantially reducing or eliminating its long-term liabilities. Once this occurs, the Company plans to pursue growth in its remaining assets as well as additional acquisition opportunities.”

Mr. Schott continued, “This should also help the Company to regain compliance with the continued listing standards of the NYSE American.”

Safe Harbor Statement and Disclaimer

This release includes "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. Forward-looking statements give our current expectations, opinion, belief or forecasts of future events and performance. A statement identified by the use of forward-looking words including "will," "may," "expects," "projects," "anticipates," "plans," "believes," "estimate," "should," and certain of the other foregoing statements may be deemed forward-looking statements. Although Camber believes that the expectations reflected in such forward-looking statements are reasonable, these statements involve risks and uncertainties that may cause actual future activities and results to be materially different from those suggested or described in this news release. These include risks inherent in natural gas and oil drilling and production activities, including risks of fire, explosion, blowouts, pipe failure, casing collapse, unusual or unexpected formation pressures, environmental hazards, and other operating and production risks, which may temporarily or permanently reduce production or cause initial production or test results to not be indicative of future well performance or delay the timing of sales or completion of drilling operations; delays in receipt of drilling permits; risks with respect to natural gas and oil prices, a material decline which could cause Camber to delay or suspend planned drilling operations or reduce production levels; risks relating to the availability of capital to fund drilling operations that can be adversely affected by adverse drilling results, production declines and declines in natural gas and oil prices; risks relating to unexpected adverse developments in the status of properties; risks associated with the conditions to closing required to be met to obtain all but the initial $9 million due pursuant to the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement; risks relating to the absence or delay in receipt of government approvals or third party consents; and other risks described in Camber's Annual Report on Form 10-K and other filings with the SEC, available at the SEC's website at www.sec.gov. Additionally, the forward-looking statements included herein include statements regarding the expected timetable for completing the proposed disposition and benefits of the proposed disposition transaction. Such forward-looking statements are subject to a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties, many of which are beyond the control of Camber, which may cause actual results to differ materially from those implied or expressed by the forward-looking statements, including but not limited to, the satisfactory completion of due diligence by Camber and the buyer, the ability of Camber to negotiate and enter into a definitive combination agreement with the buyer and, if such an agreement is entered into, the satisfaction of the conditions contained in the definitive combination agreement, any delay or inability to obtain necessary approvals or consents from third parties, the ability of Camber to obtain shareholder approval for the transactions, the need to obtain the approval of IBC, the inability of Camber to maintain its listing on the NYSE American, the ability of Camber to realize the anticipated benefits from the proposed business transaction, and others. Investors are cautioned that any forward-looking statements are not guarantees of future performance and actual results or developments may differ materially from those projected. The forward-looking statements in this press release are made as of the date hereof. The Company takes no obligation to update or correct its own forward-looking statements, except as required by law, or those prepared by third parties that are not paid for by the Company. The Company's SEC filings are available at <http://www.sec.gov>.
