Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

On November 7, 2022, Camber Energy Inc. (the “Company”) received a deficiency letter (the “Deficiency Letter”) from the NYSE American LLC (the “NYSE American”) indicating that the Company is not in compliance with the NYSE American continued listing standard set forth in Section 1003(f)(v) of the NYSE American Company Guide because its shares of common stock, par value $0.001 per share (the “Common Stock”) have been selling for a substantial period of time at a low price per share, which NYSE American determined to be a 30 day trading average price of less than $0.20 per share.

As required, the Company has notified the NYSE American of its intent to cure the listing standard deficiency and restore its compliance with the NYSE American continued listing standards. The Company intends to consider all available options to cure the deficiency and restore compliance, including, if there has not been sustained price improvement in the Company’s Common Stock, carrying out a reverse stock split (subject to stockholder approval at the Company’s 2023 annual meeting, which we presently anticipate will be held in May 2023, or at an earlier special meeting of stockholders, if required to implement the terms of such reverse stock split).

The notice has no immediate impact on the listing of the Common Stock, which will continue to be listed and traded on the NYSE American during this period, subject to the Company’s compliance with the other listing requirements of the NYSE American; however the NYSE American can take accelerated delisting action in the event that the Company’s Common Stock trades at levels viewed to be abnormally low. The Common Stock will continue to trade under the symbol “CEI”, but will have an added designation of “.BC” to indicate the status of the Common Stock as “below compliance”. The notice does not affect the Company’s ongoing business operations or its reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

If the Common Stock ultimately were to be delisted for any reason, it could negatively impact the Company by (i) reducing the liquidity and market price of the Company’s Common Stock; (ii) reducing the number of investors willing to hold or acquire the Common Stock, which could negatively impact the Company’s ability to raise equity financing; (iii) limiting the Company’s ability to use a registration statement to offer and sell freely tradable securities, thereby preventing the Company from accessing the public capital markets; and (iv) impairing the Company’s ability to provide equity incentives to its employees.

Item 8.01. Other Events.

On November 11, 2022, in accordance with the Exchange’s procedures, the Company issued a press release discussing the matters disclosed in Item 3.01 above. A copy of the press release is included herewith as Exhibit 99.1, which is incorporated by reference into this Item 8.01.

Camber Energy Discloses Communication From NYSE American

HOUSTON, TX / ACCESSWIRE / November 11, 2022 – Camber Energy, Inc.’s, (NYSE: American) (“Camber” or the “Company”) announced that on November 7, 2022 it received a letter from the NYSE American (the “Exchange”) advising that the Company’s securities have been selling for a substantial period of time at a low price per share, which the Exchange determined to be a 30 day trading average price of less than $0.20 per share and, as a result, pursuant to Section 1003(f)(v) of the NYSE American Company Guide, the Company’s continued listing is predicated on demonstrating sustained price improvement or effecting a reverse stock split of its common stock within a reasonable period of time, which the Exchange has determined to be no later than May 7, 2023.

The Company intends to closely monitor the price of its common stock and consider available options if its common stock does not trade at a consistent level likely to result in the Company regaining compliance in a timely manner, including, if necessary, carrying out a reverse stock split (subject to stockholder approval at the Company’s 2023 annual meeting, which we presently anticipate will be held in May 2023, or at an earlier special meeting of stockholders, if required to implement the terms of such reverse stock split).

The letter from the Exchange has no immediate impact on the listing of the Company’s common stock, which will continue to be listed and traded on the Exchange during this period, subject to the Company’s compliance with the other listing requirements of the Exchange; however, the Exchange can take accelerated delisting action in the event that the Company’s common stock trades at levels viewed to be abnormally low. The Company’s common stock will continue to trade under the symbol “CEI”, but will have an added designation of “.BC” to indicate the status of the Common Stock as “below compliance”. The letter from the Exchange does not affect the Company’s ongoing business operations or its reporting requirements with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
