Words such as “strategy,” “expects,” “continues,” “plans,” “anticipates,” “believes,” “would,” “will,” “estimates,” “intends,” “projects,” “goals,” “targets” and other words of similar meaning are intended to identify forward-looking statements but are not the exclusive means of identifying these statements.

Important factors that may cause actual results and outcomes to differ materially from those contained in such forward-looking statements include, without limitation, the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstances that could give rise to the parties failing to complete the merger on the terms disclosed, if at all, the right of one or both of Viking or Camber to terminate the merger agreement and the result of such termination; the outcome of any legal proceedings that may be instituted against Viking, Camber or their respective directors; the ability to obtain regulatory approvals and other consents, and meet other closing conditions to the merger on a timely basis or at all, including the risk that regulatory approvals or other consents required for the merger are not obtained on a timely basis or at all, or which are obtained subject to conditions that are not anticipated or that could adversely affect the combined company or the expected benefits of the transaction; the ability to obtain approval by Viking stockholders and Camber stockholders on the expected schedule; required closing conditions which may not be able to be met and/or consents which may not be able to be obtained; difficulties and delays in integrating Viking’s and Camber’s businesses; prevailing economic, market, regulatory or business conditions, or changes in such conditions, negatively affecting the parties, including, but not limited to, as a result of the recent volatility in oil and gas prices and the status of the economy (both US and global) due to the Covid-19 pandemic and actions taken to slow the spread of Covid-19; risks that the transaction disrupts Viking’s or Camber’s current plans and operations; failing to fully realize anticipated cost savings and other anticipated benefits of the merger when expected or at all; potential adverse reactions or changes to business relationships resulting from the announcement or completion of the merger; the ability of Camber to obtain the approval of its Series C Preferred Stock holder to close the merger (to the extent required); the ability of Viking or Camber to retain and hire key personnel; the diversion of management’s attention from ongoing business operations; uncertainty as to the long-term value of the common stock of the combined company following the merger; the continued availability of capital and financing, prior to, and following, the merger; the business, economic and political conditions in the markets in which Viking and Camber operate; and the fact that Viking’s and Camber’s reported earnings and financial position may be adversely affected by tax and other factors.

Other important factors that may cause actual results and outcomes to differ materially from those contained in the forward-looking statements included in this communication are described in the Form S-4 (defined below), and Viking's and Camber's publicly filed reports, including Viking's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2019 and Camber's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended March 31, 2020, and subsequently filed Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q.

Camber Energy, Inc. and Viking Energy Group, Inc. Report Further Progress on Planned Merger

HOUSTON, TX – September 15, 2020 (GlobeNewswire) – Camber Energy, Inc. (NYSE American: CEI) (“Camber”) and Viking Energy Group, Inc. (OTCQB: VKIN) (“Viking”) are pleased to announce that on September 4, 2020, Camber filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), an amended Registration Statement on Form S-4 (“Form S-4”), including a preliminary joint proxy statement relating to the planned merger between Viking and Camber (the “merger”), which addressed SEC comments that Camber received on the original Form S-4 filed on June 4, 2020.

The companies are now awaiting further comments on the Form S-4 from the SEC, which the parties anticipate being minor, if any are received at all, and/or approval of the SEC to move forward with finalizing the Form S-4 and seeking effectiveness thereof. Once Camber has cleared comments from the SEC on the Form S-4, the parties plan to promptly move forward with setting the record dates for their special meetings to seek stockholder approvals for the merger and other items set forth in the joint proxy statement/prospectus included in the Form S-4 (the “Joint Proxy”).

To date, Camber and Viking have each satisfied nearly all of their respective conditions to closing the merger, provided that such merger remains subject to certain remaining conditions to closing, including, effectiveness of the Form S-4, approval of the stockholders of each of Camber and Viking of the merger and certain of the other proposals set forth in the Joint Proxy, and approval of the NYSE American for the continued listing of Camber’s common stock following the merger, which the parties anticipate requiring the combined company to satisfy the initial listing standards of the NYSE American.

Below is an updated estimated timeline for closing the merger:

*Estimate only. There is no guarantee items will be completed by such date, or at all. Such timeline may also need to be extended in connection with delays caused by the Covid-19 pandemic and governmental responses to such pandemic, the SEC’s review of the registration statement, or other matters outside of the control of the parties.

¹ Subject to Camber receiving no comments, or limited further comments, on the Form S-4 filed with the SEC on September 4, 2020.

Details regarding the planned merger, along with copies of the Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of merger governing the terms of the merger (the “merger agreement”), were included in Viking’s and Camber’s Current Reports on Form 8-K, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on September 3, 2020, and are available under “investors” – “SEC filings” at www.vikingenergygroup.com and www.camber.energy.

As disclosed previously, the planned merger contemplates Camber issuing newly-issued shares of common stock and Series A Convertible Preferred Stock to the equity holders of Viking in exchange for 100% of the outstanding equity securities of Viking by means of a reverse triangular merger in which a newly formed wholly-owned subsidiary of Camber will merge with and into Viking, with Viking continuing as the surviving corporation and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Camber after the merger. If the closing of the merger occurs (the “Closing”), the Viking equity holders prior to the merger will own approximately 80% of Camber’s fully-diluted common stock immediately after the merger, and the Camber equity holders prior to the merger shall own approximately 20% of Camber’s fully-diluted common stock immediately after the merger, subject to adjustment mechanisms set out in the merger agreement, as amended, and in each case on a fully-diluted, as-converted basis as of immediately prior to the Closing (including options, warrants and other rights to acquire equity securities of Viking or Camber), but without taking into account any shares of common stock issuable to the holder of Camber’s Series C Preferred Stock upon conversion of the Series C Preferred Stock. Completion of the merger is subject to a number of closing conditions, as set out in the merger agreement.

James Doris, President & CEO of Viking, stated, “While the refiling of the Form S-4 was completed later than originally anticipated, we believe we are still well positioned to close the merger by the end of the year, as originally contemplated.”

Louis G. Schott, Interim CEO of Camber, stated, “Now that both Camber and Viking have filed their quarterly reports for the periods ending June 30, 2020, the next updates to the companies’ financial statements are not required until November 2020, and we anticipate being able to address any SEC comments on the Form S-4, if any, in only a few weeks after the receipt of such comments, which should allow us to move forward with the Camber and Viking stockholder meetings promptly after the SEC signs off on such Form S-4 filing.”
